HOUSE OF COMMONS GIVES CHURCHILL VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Headlong Attack Repulsed by MacArthur's Forces
Jap Invasion Hordes Thirty Miles From Singapore

Way Cleared Along
Johore Strait for
A Decisive Battle

BY ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

The fateful battle for Singapore raged only thirty miles away in the jungles of southern Malaya today, and as "zero hour" approached, the world awaited an answer to the mystery of the island stronghold's $400,000,000 defenses.

In London, Prime Minister Churchill told parliament that "I cannot tell how the Johore battle or the attack on the island of Singapore will go, but there has been a steady flow of reinforcements for several weeks past."

In the Burma war theatre, sharp-shooting Yankee and British combat pilots scored another spectacular victory over Japan's airmen, wiping out at least 13 Japanese planes and possibly more in a battle over Rangoon. Not a single loss was suffered by the Americans or British.

A British communiqué acknowledged that Japanese vanguards had advanced within 30 miles of Johore Strait, which separates Singapore Island from the mainland, but declared that bayonet-wielding Australians had successfully counter-attacked and inflicted about 200 casualties.

On the Malay east coast, other Japanese columns had apparently driven to a point 40 miles northeast of Johore Strait, with heavy fighting at Ulu Sedili.

British headquarters said imperial defense troops were "in contact" with the Japanese central front spearhead near Layang-Layang, a town on the main Singapore railroad 30 miles above Johore Strait.

A mile-wide strip was being cleared along the strait in preparation for the battle of Singapore Island itself.

Paramount were these questions:

1. Will Singapore, with its ear-shattering 18-inch guns turned toward the sea, become another "Magnet" — a defenseless shell when attacked from the rear?
2. Or have the British erected a secret network of death-trap defenses at the lower tip of the Malay peninsula, guarding the mile-wide water barrier to Singapore island from the north?

Meanwhile, Japanese invasion hordes launched a new two-pronged drive into Dutch West Borneo, sharply threatening the chief city of Pontianak, south of the "White Rajah" kingdom of Sarawak.

Official dispatches said Dutch troops were continuing stubborn resistance against other Japanese forces which landed earlier at Balikpapan, a big oil port in East Borneo, and near Kendari, on Celebes Island.

On the Malay front, a British spokesman indicated that hard-fighting imperial troops were still holding their lines intact amid heaviest Japanese pressure.

In the Philippines, a war department bulletin said American artillery gunners smashed new assaults on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's defense lines in the Bataan Peninsula, inflicting bloody losses.

The war department said United States heavy bombers carried out a third attack on the big Japanese invasion armada trapped in Macassar Strait, between Dutch East Borneo and Celebes Island, destroying an enemy transport and setting another transport afire.

This apparently referred to action announced by the Dutch yesterday.

A Sydney (Australia) radio broadcast said 46 Japanese warships and transports carrying 25,000 troops had already been sunk in the seven-day-old battle of Macassar Strait.

Berlin, (From German broadcasts) Jan. 29.—(P)—A dispatch from Tokyo declared that the United States' "garrison at the fortress island of Corregidor in Manila bay had been called upon by radio today to surrender to the Japanese commander on Luzon. (The dispatch did not indicate that the Japanese received any reply.)

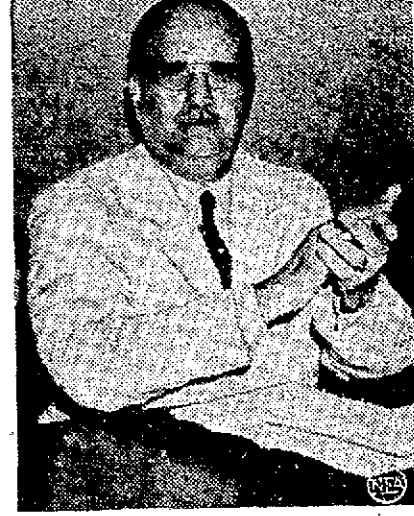

Washington, Jan. 29.—(P)—Artillery of General Douglas MacArthur's durable little army in the Philippines has inflicted heavy losses and played havoc with Japanese infantry plunges at its flanks, said a war department communiqué today which also raised to at least 38 the number of enemy ships sunk or damaged in Macassar Straits.

The news coincided with evidence that Germany had shifted a major portion of its submarine war to American waters, with the reported presence of marauding U-boats right off the coast of Texas.

"Headlong" was the word the war department used to describe the desperate and unsuccessful Japanese attacks against MacArthur on the Bataan peninsula of the island of Luzon. "Enemy losses were heavy," the communiqué said.

Western Hemisphere Solidarity Affirmed Unanimously and Peru and Ecuador Agree to Settle 111-Year-Old Quarrel in Triumphant Windup of Pan-American Conference

SEVERANCE OF AXIS
RELATIONS APPROVED

BULLETIN
Berlin, Jan. 29.—(Andi Agency to P)—The Brazilian ambassador visited the Wilhelmstrasse at noon today and handed the German foreign office a note which it was assumed contained his government's severance of diplomatic relations with the Reich.

Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 29.—(P)—Western hemisphere solidarity was affirmed unanimously and Peru and Ecuador agreed to settle their 111-year-old boundary dispute in a triumphant windup of the Pan-American conference here early today.

The conclusion came in post-conference mediation of the Peruvian-Ecuadorian differences several hours after the foreign ministers of the 21 American republics had formally adjourned their two-week sessions.

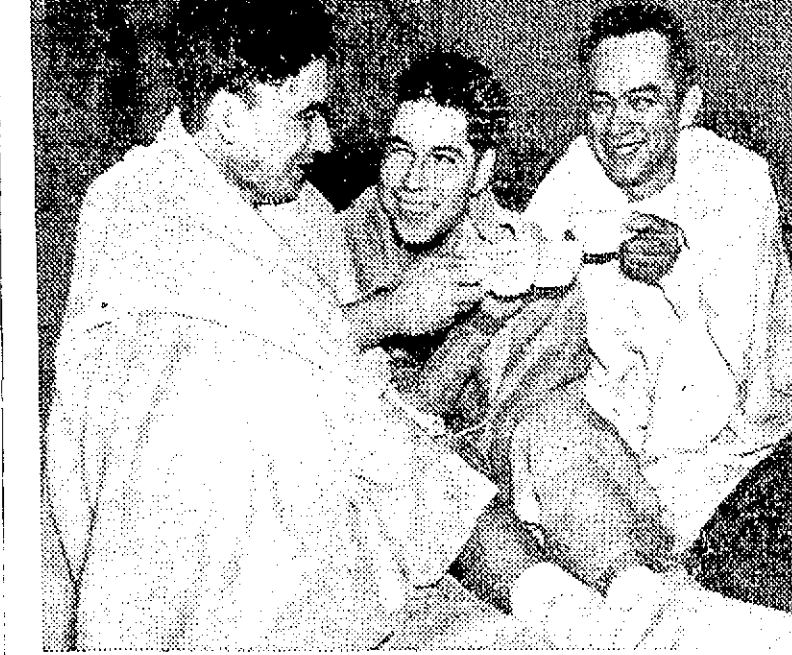

Major fruits of the conference were contained in 41 resolutions—inscribed in English, French, Spanish and Portuguese—recommending severance of relations with the Axis, setting up joint military, economic and financial boards and otherwise covering virtually the entire field of Pan American relations.

The auditor was signed up as the 21st to endorse them.

Her delegation had insisted on settlement of the boundary dispute as a prerequisite.

This was accomplished at a gathering of Foreign Minister Julio Tobar Donoso of Ecuador, Foreign Minister Dr. Alfredo Sotelo Muro of Peru and mediating representatives of Argentina, Brazil, (Turn to Page Eight)

Walsh Suggests Plan
To Curb Excess War
Profits on Contracts

Washington, Jan. 29.—(P)—Limitation of the navy's authority to negotiate contracts without competitive bidding was proposed today by Chairman Walsh (D-Mass.) of the senate naval affairs committee as a step toward curbing excess war profits.

With colleagues questioning the cost of army fighting planes, Walsh told reporters he hoped to amend a pending bill so that the negotiated contracts under which many ships and planes are built for the navy would yield no excessive profits.

Senators La Follette (Progressive) and Tydings (D-Md.) had asserted in the senate yesterday that congress ought to look more painstakingly into proposed expenditures for war equipment.

The senate unanimously approved and sent to the White House yesterday a $12,566,672,474 army appropriations measure providing funds for 23,000 combat and 10,000 training planes, after only 27 minutes of debate.

Investigating Group Finds That Former North Dakota Governor Should Be Denied Membership Because of Improprieties

RECOMMENDS ACTION

Washington, Jan. 29.—(P)—The senate elections committee reported today that Senator Langer (R-ND) was not entitled to a senate seat because of "a continuous, contemptuous, and shameful disregard for high concepts of public duty."

The respondent (Langer), the committee said, "has not avoided, and cannot avoid, the consequences of the acts of gross impropriety, lawlessness, shotgun law enforcement, jail breaking, violation of oath as an attorney, rabble-rousing, civil disobedience, breach of the peace, obstruction of the administration of justice, and tampering with court officials, x x x."

Asserting that the integrity of the senate was at stake, the committee asked the chamber to deny membership to the former governor of North Dakota, and recommended that action be taken by a simple majority vote.

Parliament Decides to Endorse Government of Prime Minister After Listening to Forty-Two Minute Summation of Policies and Present Situation of Allies

SAYS A. E. F. ANXIOUS TO CONTACT THE FOE

By the Associated Press
London, Jan. 29.—The house of commons, with but one dissenting vote, expressed confidence in the conduct of the war by Prime Minister Churchill after he had told them the United States was determined to close with the German foe as soon as possible.

The vote was 464 to one.

The presence of an AEF on soil of the United Kingdom—in Northern Ireland—represents the desire of the United States that her ready troops should establish contact as soon as feasible, the prime minister said.

In a 42-minute summation for his government as the house moved toward a vote of confidence, Churchill also indicated appointment of a British counterpart to the United States' chief of war production, Donald M. Nelson, and disclosed that Singapore had been steadily reinforced for a fight to the finish.

These were Churchill's high spots:

The AEF in the United Kingdom "meets the wishes of the American people and leaders of that republic that the large mass of trained and equipped troops they have in the United States should come into contact with the enemy as close and as soon as possible."

War production—In reference to appointment of Donald M. Nelson as chief of the war production board in the United States: "Some similar effort, not exactly with the same scope but with similar scope, must be created here."

Singapore—"I cannot tell how the Johore battle or the attack on the island of Singapore will go, but there has been a steady flow of reinforcements for several weeks past."

VETERAN BRITISH PILOT IS DETAINED IN LONDON

London, Jan. 29.—(P)—Squadron Leader F. J. Rutland of the Royal Air Force, who returned from the United States last October, is being detained for "alleged hostile associations" with the Japanese while in Washington, an official spokesman announced today.

Detention of the veteran pilot involves "important military questions," he said.

Rutland was a flier in the last war and while piloting what was described as "a very hazardous contraption" first spotted the German fleet off Jutland.

His detention first was disclosed a week ago today.

MEDIA YOUTH MAY BE TRIED ON NEW CHARGE

Media, Jan. 28.—(P)—Delaware county authorities, informed by medical experts that injuries suffered in the same attack which killed her sister caused the death of Miss Belle Geary, 80, today considered the possibility of filing additional charges against 15-year-old John "Jackie" Leeds.

Jackie was acquired last Saturday of a murder charge in the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Geary Watson, 53, but was remanded to jail on an assault and battery count filed in the case of Miss Geary.

Miss Geary died Tuesday, and after an autopsy last night, Dr. Martin B. Seida, county coroner, announced "this is murder."

Hitler Reported to Have Called Back Strategists

By the Associated Press
Sweeping new gains by Russia's armies were reported today as word circulated in London that Adolf Hitler, who five weeks ago ousted Field Marshal Gen. Walter von Brauchitsch and assumed supreme command of the German army, had reached a compromise with his generals because he was "unable to carry on without the aid of experienced strategists."

In dismissing Von Brauchitsch, a few days before Christmas, Hitler declared his "intuitions" had led him "to reserve to himself personally all essential decisions" in directing the war.

Amid steadily mounting reverses on the Soviet front, the German war machine appeared to be executing something of a comeback in North Africa.

British Middle East headquarters acknowledged that Gen. Erwin Rommel's Libyan counter-offensive, which had driven the British back 150 miles in five days, scored a new advance to within 16 miles of British-held Bengasi, on the Gulf of Sirte.

Premier Mussolini's high command reported in a special bulletin that German and Italian troops entered the battle-scarred town of Bengasi this morning.

More and more, it was becoming apparent that the British command had drawn heavily on its Libyan forces—presumably sending Australian and other imperial troops from North Africa to bolster defenses in the Far Pacific struggle—and that the Axis counter-offensive would be difficult to stop.

The British said Gen. Rommel's forces suddenly veered to the west and northwest in the last 24 hours after being stalled for two days in an eastward thrust.

On the Russian front, Soviet dispatches reported a 93-mile advance by Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's armies somewhere on the (Turn to Page Thirteen)

The vote came on a motion to request the documentary evidence collected by the president's special commission headed by Justice Owen Roberts in studying the tragedy.

"This means no investigation at this time, by this committee," declared Representative Maas (R-Minn.), ranking Republican member of the committee. Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) declined to elaborate on the announcement beyond saying that the motion had been tabled by a 14 to 6 vote.

MANY CHANGES

MILK HEARINGS

New York, Jan. 29.—(P)—The first round in the battle over milk marketing methods affecting 15,000,000 persons in six states ended last night on a sour note.

Proponents and opponents of 80 proposed amendments to federal-state marketing orders still were at sword's points as Chairman Glen J. Clifford adjourned 17 days of public hearings.

Testimony now goes before Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard for judgment.

The proposals which Wickard finds of probable benefit to the majority of interests within the New York milkshed will be submitted to referendum.

Five additional changes brought up at the hearing were reserved for future discussion.

One of the chief issues to provoke heated arguments was a proposal to increase payments to (Turn to Page Eight)

REDISTRICTING COMMITTEE WILL SIGN AGREEMENT

Harrisburg, Jan. 29.—(P)—A special legislative committee of five Republicans and five Democrats will meet next Wednesday to sign a joint plan for redistricting Pennsylvania's congressional districts from 24 to 35 and clear the way for a special session to enact the proposal.

The meeting was called after State Senator M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) and Rep. Leo A. Achteman (D-Montour) conferred with Governor James who has insisted that the committee's plan be put in writing to insure passage of a bill in the legislature before he calls a session.

James told Taylor and Achteman that signing of the plan, pledging both parties, would remove the one obstacle to calling the session, which also will consider some defense subjects.

The committee was assigned by the legislature to settle the problem of reapportioning the congressional districts to fit them from 24 to 33, as required by the 1940 census.

The group finally agreed that Republicans would drop a district Democrats would likewise, and one congressman would be elected.

Tokyo (From Japanese Broadcasts) Jan. 29.—(P)—Imperial headquarters claimed today that Japanese naval planes had won air supremacy over vital sea lanes in a vast area between Borneo and Celebes and between Celebes and New Guinea.

London, Jan. 29.—(P)—The Japanese-controlled Saigon radio said today the Japanese had occupied Merguim, on the west coast of the Burma Peninsula. The British announced their withdrawal from Merguim two days ago.

Tokyo (From Japanese Broadcasts) Jan. 29.—(P)—The Japan Times and Advertiser intimated strongly today that Japan might eliminate the last vestiges of French control in Indo-China unless activities hostile to Japan ceased.

Kuibyshev, Russia, Jan. 28.—(Delayed)—(P)—The giant turbines and other equipment of the Dnieper river dam power station were dismantled and moved east before the structure was blown up and left to the German invaders last year, representatives of the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic said today, adding that the turbines soon would be used again to generate electricity for Russian industry.

MINIMUM WAGE FOR WOMEN IS UP AGAIN

Harrisburg, Jan. 29.—(P)—Conferees leading to a minimum wage code for thousands of women employed in restaurants and hotels will be held next week by Secretary Lewis G. Hines of the department of labor and industry.

Hines made the arrangements after the state supreme court upheld an act authorizing the state to fix wages and hours for women and minors. The decision particularly applied to the laundry industry.

Boat Epic in Pacific

Washington, Jan. 29.—(P)—A lifeboat bearing 13 American merchant seamen from a torpedoed steamer has reached a tiny South Seas island after a 31-day voyage over 2,500 miles of lonely sea—a cruel journey that ranks as an open boat epic.

The boat was one of two which set off when the 7,000-ton steamer Frisco was torpedoed 100 miles from Honolulu Dec. 19.

Petroleum Situation in the East
Getting Tighter, Ickes Declares

Washington, Jan. 29.—(P)—Interior Secretary Ickes said today the petroleum situation in the east where rationing was imposed last summer, was "tight and getting tighter" as a result of ship tanker sinkings and diversion of such vessels to war service.

The secretary, who also is petroleum coordinator, declined to predict that gasoline rationing was forthcoming, but indicated he might reopen a proposal to build a $50,000,000 pipeline from Texas to New Jersey.

Asked at his press conference about the New England coal situation, Ickes said the supply situation was getting "critical."

The situation has resulted, he said, apparently from "unnecessary and arbitrary" regulations imposed at New York and New England coal receiving ports. He expressed confidence that the condition would be rectified.

LOCAL VICTORY BOOK QUOTA IS "OVER THE TOP"

That Warren county is doing its share in the current Victory Book campaign to provide material for the boys in military service is indicated by the fact that it is among 21 of 43 communities reported today which have exceeded their goals.

With a quota of 2,200 books this county already has obtained 3,700 and it is expected that the conclusion of the campaign this week will find the quota easily doubled.

However, it was pointed out today by those in charge of the drive here that many persons who have promised books during campaign have not yet sent them in. It was stated that a modern, readable book in good condition is acceptable.

In the state to date, the campaign has netted 137,175 volumes, according to Chairman Horace M. Byrnes. The state's goal is a million books.

Among those in this section whose goals have been exceeded are Venango county with 5,436 and Forest county with 476.

RITES HELD FOR FORMER WARREN
 NEWSPAPER MAN

Funeral services were held today for David D. Reed, 81, of Ontario, N. Y., former Warren newspaper publisher, who died early Tuesday morning at his home. Burial was in Webster, N. Y. Prior to moving to Ontario with his wife last December, Mr. Reed had resided in Ridgway for 23 years.

Mr. Reed was born in Binghamton, N. Y., in 1860, a son of the late James C. and Jennie A. Sheedy Reed, and was the eldest of five children. He attended the Binghamton schools and at the age of 18 entered the newspaper field.

Four years later, in 1882, he purchased his first newspaper at North Clarendon, Warren county. A year later he came to Warren, where he launched a new venture, the Warren Mirror, and in 1884 he purchased the Warren Weekly Ledger. He also started the Warren Evening News, but disposed of his holdings here and located in Erie, where for twelve years he was manager and editor of the Erie Morning Dispatch and Evening News.

He returned to Warren, where he was advertising manager and superintendent of Today's Magazine, of Warren and New York City. This business was consolidated and the plant was moved to Canton, Ohio. Mr. Reed then purchased the Corry Daily Ledger of Corry, and continued its publication for four years.

In 1918 Mr. Reed went to Ridgway as assistant manager and editor of the Daily Record, where he remained until 1921, when he entered the columnist field. During his long residence in Ridgway Mr. Reed was secretary of the Ridgway Chamber of Commerce and was active in promoting affairs of that organization. He was also a member of the Ridgway Social Science Club.

Mr. Reed married Lucretia C. Funk, at North Clarendon on June 26, 1885. Besides his widow, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. P. A. MacInnes, of Rochester, N. Y., and two grandchildren.

Members of the Warren Kiwanis Club, at their weekly luncheon meeting at the Carver Hotel Wednesday noon, enjoyed a very interesting illustrated talk by Clarence Lawson, of the Pennsylvania Electric Company, on the island of Corregidor and Manila in the Philippine Islands, where Mr. Lawson served with the U. S. Coast Artillery several years ago.

Mr. Lawson, who was introduced by Elbert Miller, gave a very entertaining talk on his experiences in the Philippines and told many interesting facts concerning the island fortress of Corregidor. Pictures projected on a screen added much to the program. Following the talk Mr. Lawson answered a number of questions on his experiences.

President H. D. Baker was in charge of the meeting, at which the election to membership of T. E. Eppley, Y. M. C. A. boys' work director, was announced. Mr. Eppley was named a sergeant for February, together with Everett Stoke and Rev. Harold Knappenberger.

Announcement was made that the inter-club meeting to be held in Erie, at which International President Charles Donley, of Pittsburgh, will be the guest speaker, has been postponed to February 17.

Guests at the meeting were J. P. Fenstermacher and E. S. Garber, of Warren, and Morris Davies, of Philadelphia.

Prominent Evangelist

Rev. Melvin K. Frey

A series of meetings will be held in the First Evangelical church beginning Sunday with Rev. Melvin K. Frey, prominent evangelist of Findlay, O., as the engaged speaker. The services will continue to February 15.

Rev. Frey is also a leader of youth conferences and a lecturer for the W. C. T. U. and Men's Brotherhood activities. He has addressed thousands of public school students in Pennsylvania and neighboring states on the harmful effects of alcohol, nicotine and drugs, approaching these from a scientific standpoint. He is being brought here through the Albright Brotherhood of the Pittsburgh Conference.

Services will begin each night at 7:30 o'clock with singing of old gospel songs and choruses. The public is cordially invited to attend.

NO TIME FOR LOVE
 BY WATKINS E. WRIGHT

Chapter 26
One Should Be Happy
"If you had your life to live over again, I'd marry the day you quarreled with that man, would you live it differently? I mean, would you go to him, make up with him, and say you'd marry him?"
"You want the truth—the absolute truth?" said Aunt Dorcas.
"I certainly do. I won't be satisfied with anything less than the absolute truth."
"Then here it is. If I had my life to live over again, I'd marry that man so quickly he wouldn't know what had happened!" Aunt Dorcas caught her breath. "I'd never even look at a lion or a bear—and the only digging I'd do is the digging necessary to prove my love. So there!"
"Thank you, Aunt Dorcas."
"Well, what are you going to do about it?"
"You'll know tomorrow—when I get back to New York."
"Lavinia Prentiss, don't you dare keep me in suspense!" said Aunt Dorcas.
"Suspense is good for one," said Lavinia. "Good-bye, Aunt Dorcas."
She went out to the porch, and stood looking down at Rod. She thought of him as he must have been in Dunkirk. She remembered how he had looked at Harbor Head. She moved toward him. He heard her, and turned. He got up.
"Nothing wrong, I hope," he said.
"No," said Lavinia. "Everything's lovely."
"For you, maybe," said Rod. "But not for me. I suppose you told your aunt you were going back to Armworth's."
Lavinia shook her head. "No, I didn't, Rod."
"Well, what next?" said Rod. "Why don't you ask me to marry you?" said Lavinia.
"I've been asking you, darling."
"Well, do it again. I like hearing it."
"But I don't like hearing you say 'no.'"
"Try me once more."
"Lavinia, will you marry me?"
"Yes, Rod, darling."
"Now, listen, Lavinia," said Rod. "You can't convince me that Aunt Dorcas did a thing like that."
"All right, have it your way, darling," Lavinia lifted her face. "Let's forget Aunt Dorcas and her bears for a moment—while you kiss me again."
"You have Aunt Dorcas to thank," Lavinia said.

A LITERARY GEM

Sergeant Pilot Delbert McCool, first war casualty in Warren county, whose body was returned to the grief-stricken community of Tidioute last evening, sat down in his barracks at Uplands, Ontario, January 18 to jot a note to his mother. He doubtless intended it to be just another letter to the one he held most dear, but in view of the tragic accident Monday of this week which claimed his life, and the expressions of profound gratitude and encouragement contained in the letter, it becomes a document that might well be considered a literary classic.

Mrs. McCool may be consoled by the thought that she not only gave a boy to help save the world from tyrannical dictators, but a son who in the height of a great achievement, could take time to write a letter to his mother containing such expressions of devotion and appreciation as are found in the following, received by Mrs. McCool the day before the death of the young hero:

"Uplands, Ontario, Jan. 18, 1942.

"Dearest Mother, "Friday afternoon I was graduated as a pilot in the Royal Canadian Air Force, and received my wings.

"Throughout my life you have been most dear to me. Any good in my physical, mental or moral self, I owe to you; and what ambitions, courage and determination I possess is due to the instruction and advice you have given me. Your morals have been my guiding star and beacon toward success and happiness. Although I have little, of either at this writing, there is still a lot of water to flow beneath the bridge of life across the years.

"I am sending my wings as a tribute to you, my sincerest and dearest mother, my co-pilot throughout life.

"With my deepest love,

"Delbert."

That accident near Sheffield Wednesday morning, causing injury to four persons, reminds that extreme care should be exercised by every motorist at all times, but more especially when the roads are covered with snow or ice. In addition to the danger to life and limb, car owners involved in such crashes will find it difficult, if not impossible, to secure replacements of needed parts.

The borough's 1942 budget, scheduled for adoption by council at the meeting next Monday evening, has been on file at the office of the borough secretary for public inspection since the first of the month, and according to reports but one taxpayer has appeared to study it. Most citizens are probably fed up on figures in dispatches coming out of Washington.

The Lincoln school at Clarendon Heights set a fine example for others in the county and borough to follow when the teachers and pupils presented a special program Tuesday welcoming home two former students, who are now serving in the armed forces of the country.

Here's something for motorists to think about: Actuaries predict an increase in automobile accidents because of poorer tires and increased driving of old cars. Incidentally, deaths from auto accidents in 1942 may pass 40,000, an all-time high.

Patriotic Warren women might well emulate those girls at Connecticut College. When in need of a slogan to spur competition in a Red Cross knitting contest, they came up with this one: "Remember, purr harder!"

Nine states are now considering bills making tire theft a felony, imposing sentences up to ten years, and the quicker Pennsylvania lawmakers get busy, the safer we will all feel.

Peanut eating may be curtailed to provide more peanuts for oil. Might just as well place a ban on circuses!

Lot of young people in Warren will be interested in learning that while there may be less nickel in the new five-cent pieces, they will still fit the juke boxes.

According to the assortment already displayed in Warren stores, the war hasn't affected the production of Valentines.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK — What price fame?

Jack London was an egotist who loaded his novels with borrowings from his own autobiographical experiences. His heroes operated under picturesque names and in the most engaging circumstances, but when you analyzed them—pacing a quarter deck or pointing their long frosty muzzles at the white arctic moon—they always turned out to be Jack London in disguise.

One of these was "Martin Eden," a half-forgotten novel now happily resurrected by Warner Brothers and made into a movie.

WHEN promotion work on this movie got underway it was noted that London's birthday, Jan. 11, was conveniently near, so representatives of Warner's New York office telephoned a famous old Manhattan ale house and made arrangements to celebrate the anniversary of London's birthday with a little extra-added cheer.

The good people at the ale house were obliged, you may be sure. They said they would do everything in their power, which was considerable, to make the evening a success.

They wanted to know how many guests to expect, and they wanted to know about the food. And about the ale. Should it be iceed, or merely cellar chilled?

Then the man on the other end of the wire asked one more question. "Tell me," he said, "Will Mr. London himself be here?"

Jack London has been dead 25 years.

ALL the waiters in the Pire Room of the George Washington hotel are Filipinos. I had quite a talk with one at lunch today. He was Benito Gahan, aged 40, an expatriate Manila, who, like his 10 other compatriots, is enduring a sort of special torment, waiting for word of their relatives and friends to get through.

Benito himself has a father, four sisters and four brothers in Manila, and he hasn't heard a word of any of them since war began. His father is a doctor. He has a 15-year-old daughter who lives in Chicago, and he is divorced.

On his white tunic he wears a pin that says, "I am a Filipino," and on the pin is an American flag. They put as good a face on the matter as they can. . . . But as Benito puts it, "Sometimes the waiting is pretty long, especially at night, when there's nothing to do but think and wonder."

IF YOU'RE wondering why so many debutantes are pictured so frequently "romancing" in the nightclubs—it isn't romance. Quite a number make their pin-money that way. They may charge $10, or maybe $20, or maybe even $50 for posing with the different swains. I was sitting within three feet of Chic Farmer, now representing El Morocco one afternoon when he telephoned one of the better publicized debs and said, "Honey, there's ten bucks in it for you if you'll come down tomorrow at 4:30 and pose for a couple of pictures."

She said, "Yes," and next day, she was there.

Prizes of War Abound In Netherlands Indies

THE Japanese drive into the Netherlands East Indies is aimed at the richest prizes of war. Rubber, oil, copper, tin and quinine abound in the rich Dutch possessions.

The stamp above, issued in 1933, shows a native scene, a farmer and oxen. Farmer-settles in the islands are for the most part "lains," independent farmers as distinguished from those who make a living as hired laborers.

There are about 5000 islands in the archipelago Borneo, New Guinea, Sumatra, Java and Celebes are the largest with spheres of influence in the hands of the Dutch and English. Before the outbreak of hostilities Japan entered a $30,000,000 trade with the Indies.

Oil, the black, flowing gold which is vital currency in either war or peace, is a leading export of the islands. Some 60,000,000 barrels of crude petroleum were produced last year to rank the Indies fifth among the world producers of oil.

The fate of the Indies is of vital concern to U. S. for 40 per cent of the rubber and 25 per cent of the tin consumed in the United States come from the Netherlands Indies.

A WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — Not in recent years, certainly not since the last world war, has the question been so often asked: What's the matter with Washington?

The question has nothing to do with world affairs. The "Washington" referred to is the city. The reason for the question is that the city is not doing as well as it should. For more than a year, civil service and other government officials have been warning the District of Columbia about the prospective influx of federal workers.

NEWSPAPERS and commentators have pointed to the inadequacies of housing, office space, traffic, welfare agencies, schools, hospitals and a dozen other things. But what is done about it all adds up to a big zero.

The reason is that Congress rules the District and congressmen, for the most part, aren't interested. The District committees in the House and Senate are considered the biggest headaches of any assignments and "District Day" is either a branch of Congress (those days when matters pertaining to Washington are considered) or marked on many congressman's calendars as holidays.

As a partial solution for the housing situation, the District has opened a defense housing agency that registers every available room-for-rent in the area and does them out to incoming workers. The local newspapers gave this excellent support. The result, as of present date, is that the agency has a listing of slightly more than 2,000 rooms—enough for TWO WEEKS at the present rate of new government hirings—and the well is running dry.

AS FOR office space—only by using the old Gen. Brehon B. Somervell method of building first and getting authorization later has the government been able to up its temporary building campaign to within a mile of physical requirements.

The traffic and transportation problem would make a good volume in itself. Some idea of how critical it has become may be gleaned from the serious recommendation of Frederick Delano, national capital park and planning commissioner. The President's uncle recently suggested that no automobile (or taxi) be allowed in the mid-town area unless it carried three passengers.

Similar suggestions for a solution to all of Washington's ills are numerous. The District doesn't have an ache or pain that a dozen "medicos" don't rush to the bedside with suggested remedies—but there it ends.

MOST students of the Washington scene attribute all this to the fact that District of Columbia residents have no vote. Perhaps that is true.

Yours for

Victory

The nation greets you, Mr. President, on the occasion of your 60th birthday. In doing honor to you as our "Chief," we feel that we can best voice our wishes by re-emphasizing the fact that, like you, we, too, are 100 percent dedicated to the cause of democracy; to the safeguarding of all the freedoms for all the peoples of the earth; in short, to the victory of America and her Allies in the war we have been forced to wage. We realize in this war that civilians on the home front are also soldiers of Victory.

And because we know the importance of the invigoration of America's strength in all ways, for now and the future we shall endeavor to aid you in your battle against infantile paralysis and do our bit to give health and the opportunity to live a normal, happy, valuable life to boys and girls afflicted with this disease. Like all precious children, they are the men and women of the future; they are for whom we are fighting; that the victory which concludes this war may endow them for all time with liberty.

Paralysis Foundation Committee Hoping For Capacity Attendance at Benefits On Friday

The Warren county board of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc., is anticipating a large attendance on Friday evening at the President's Birthday card party to be held at the Philomel Club.

This is the first time in several years that this benefit has not been held in the form of a birthday ball and it is believed the change in policy, due to wartime conditions and the many other demands upon the public, will be welcomed.

There will be prizes for five hundred, contract and auction bridge and the committee will serve refreshments.

In addition to the games to be played at the Philomel Club, D. A. Schals will direct a special duplicate tournament at the Marconi Club, play starting at the same hour, and all proceeds to be given to the local committee.

It will be recalled in connection with this request for the cooperation of the public in raising much needed funds, the words of President Roosevelt concerning the national organization:

"I firmly believe that the time has now arrived when the whole attack on this plague should be led and directed, though not controlled, by one national body. The general purpose of the new foundation will be to lead, direct and unify the fight on every phase of this sickness. It will make every effort to ensure that ever responsible research agency in this country is adequately financed to carry on investigations into the cause of infantile paralysis and the methods by which it may be prevented. It will endeavor to eliminate much of the needless after-effect of this disease, wreckage caused by the failure to make early and accurate diagnosis of its presence.

"And then there is also the tremendous problem as to what is to be done with those hundreds of thousands, already ruined by the after-effects of this affliction. To investigate, to study, to develop every medical possibility of enabling these so afflicted to become economically independent in their local communities will be one of the chief aims of the new foundation."

Many persons in the community have already purchased tickets for this benefit project and it is hoped that the facilities of both clubs will be taxed to handle the crowd tomorrow evening.

Demand Grows For Probe Into Surprise Raid

cause no reinforcements have been sent to Gen. Douglas MacArthur's beleaguered forces in the Philippines, so far as is publicly known.

Rep. Maas (R-Minn.) said many members of the house naval committee wanted to inquire into the "system which apparently broke down and led to Pearl Harbor."

"We should go back to the Roberts report," Maas said. "It is a fine document as far as fixing responsibility is concerned but there are implications that our system of operating the military and navy needs to be looked into."

At the same time, Chairman May (D-Ky.) said the house military committee might study conditions at the Hawaiian outpost but would wait until President Roosevelt of the War Department had time to act.

(There has been no official indication that any further action would be taken by the administration.)

Talking to reporters concerning reinforcements for the Philippines, Senator Clark (D-Mo.) said he was nettled that American equipment seemed to be going in large part to Europe instead of toward the southwest Pacific.

"It must have been a great source of comfort to General MacArthur to hear Churchill announce to the house of commons that we have plenty of bombers to send over Germany," he said with irony.

"We ought to get some of those bombers out to the Philippines."

There was some criticism also of the transfer of American troops to northern Ireland, but Senator Chandler (D-Ky.) said no one ought to assume that this action precluded the early bolstering of forces of the United Nations opposing the Japanese.

Losses of the Enemy Are Large

Borneo harbor of Balikpapan was destroyed, another set on fire, and two enemy fighting planes were shot down by five American bombers which returned safely to their base, the department said in describing a Macassar action which apparently was the same told of yesterday at Batavia.

Yesterday the war department issued a communique which told of quite a similar attack and for a time it appeared that it was then duplicating the Batavia story.

Today's developments made the total listing of Japanese ships sunk or damaged in the straits definitely at least 38.

Japan's terrible losses in the Straits were put even higher in a broadcast by the Sydney, Australia, radio. The spokesman there figured the total at 46 warships and transports, the latter carrying 25,000 invasion troops.

Since enemy transatlantic raiders appeared Jan. 12, all indications have pointed to a more concerted campaign involving much greater strength than the spectacular lone-wolf forays of a few U-boats in World War days.

The enemy is known to have sunk 14 American or Allied ships—and to have lost a number of U-boats in the process. Despite the losses the sphere of operations appears to be widening instead of contracting.

Whatever their objectives, the raiders were taking exceptionally long risks for they have poked their noses into a veritable hornet's nest. A number of raid and navy bases ring the gulf, and while army and navy authorities kept mum on counter operations, the belief here was that they were vigorous in nature.

The life insurance agents of the United States, who aided the financing in 1917 by selling one billion dollars of Liberty Bonds, are again engaged in a nationwide campaign to help the government in the sale of defense bonds, especially payroll deduction plans for the purchase of these bonds.

Camels can go longer than five or six days without water.

STATE PUBLISHERS TO MEET IN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Jan. 29.—(AP)—How newspapers can better serve their nation, state and community in time of war will be one of the leading topics discussed by 400 editors, publishers and other officials of the state's dailies and weeklies at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association here tomorrow and Saturday.

Reviewing some of the war work of newspapers up to the present, PNPA Manager William N. Hardy said both dailies and weeklies have cooperated in improving conditions for boys in training.

The Pennsylvania Associated Press luncheon will be held Saturday noon, and the Pennsylvania Women's Press Association will meet that afternoon.

Frontier Dispute Settled

Chile and the United States. Tobar Donoso, although describing the border proposals as "an immense sacrifice for Ecuador," finally signed a bound and deribed pact with Peru at 1:55 a. m. Officers of the mediating nations will supervise the withdrawal of the Peruvian troops.

Eduardo Salazar Gomez of the Ecuadorian delegation said the settlement gives his country about 30,000 square miles of the disputed territory.

Only Argentina, Chile and Ecuador had not formally severed relations with Germany. Italy and Japan when the conference adjourned.

Banking and financial experts of the republics are to meet in Washington soon to set up uniform procedure for control of the funds of Axis nationals and firms and decide upon methods to establish a hemisphere currency stabilization fund.

Sumner Welles, U. S. undersecretary of state and chief of the delegation from Washington, planned to pay a farewell call on President Vargas of Brazil today at his summer home in Petropolis, then start a 36-hour flight to Miami.

cans, 12 from St. Joseph, Mo. The others were from Canada, Newfoundland, the British Isles and the British West Indies.

Found last Friday by the New York-Puerto Rico steamer Coamo, they were landed here yesterday. Most of those rescued had rested aboard the ship and all but one were able to disembark without help.

Before their rescue they subsisted on slim daily rations of one sea biscuit, two tablespoons of evaporated milk and four ounces of water per person. Their morale was buoyed by prayers and hymns led by one of the missionaries aboard.

Mrs. Marian Parkinson, whose husband apparently went down with the ship.

Originally there were 76 in the lifeboat but—five times Mrs. Parkinson conducted funeral services for persons who died before the Coamo appeared.

The Canadian National Steamships Company in Montreal issued a statement yesterday announcing the loss of the Lady Hawkins "through enemy action" and saying that so far only 71 survivors had been landed.

IREMEN ENJOY ANNUAL DINNER AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, Jan. 29.—Attended by firemen and invited guests, the Sheffield Volunteer Fire Department's ninth annual banquet, celebrating another year of service to the community, was a pleasant event held last evening in the American Legion Home.

Preceded by the singing of a hymn, the Star Spangled Banner, by the assembly, who stood at a minute in tribute to the memory of the four deceased members of the fire department, the feast was served at 6:50 o'clock and was followed by a round of toasts, stories, anecdotes, and musical numbers.

Francis L. Borden, president of the department, was master of ceremonies. Among those he called for remarks was Charles Slater, department chief, who commended the firemen for their work during the past year, thanked them for their cooperation and expressed the hope and belief that the department's record in the current year will equal or better that of the year just ended.

The department was also warmly commended by all of the guests to speak, among whom were several of the town's leading merchants and businessmen. Material appreciation of the service rendered by the firemen was expressed by C. R. McAl, president of the Sheffield National Bank, who presented the firemen with a handsome chip set.

The dinner was prepared and served by a committee of Legion auxiliary members, headed by Miss Evelyn Peterson, president. The committee members were: Mrs. George Stenstrom, chairman; Mrs. John E. Swanson, Mrs. Claude Anderson, Mrs. John Blodgett, Mrs. Al Plunkett, dining room committee—Mrs. Betty Johnson, chairman; Mrs. George Irwin, Mrs. George Peterson, Mrs. Elmer Dry.

The committee of firemen who ranged the banquet included: Edmund Hedvall, chairman; J. J. Rife, Rudolph Samuelson, Russell Olson, and Vincent Sprague.

YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX

No. 21
GROSS INCOME, NET INCOME, AND SURTAX NET INCOME

In computing a Federal income tax, the taxpayer is confronted with the problem of ascertaining: (1) his gross income and, unless the tax is computed under the optional simplified method, (2) his net income, and (3) his surtax net income. The instructions which accompany the forms clearly and explicitly set out how this is done. If, after reading them, the taxpayer does not understand them, he should consult the nearest collector or deputy collector of internal revenue.

Gross income, generally, is all income derived in any taxable year from any source whatever, unless specifically exempt by law. In any usual business, the gross income of the person operating it consists of the gross profits on sales, plus any income from investments and incidental or outside operations or sources. The income tax return must show gross income, sales, purchases, and the cost of the goods sold, and the inventories at the beginning and end of each taxable year.

In the case of professional men—a lawyer, a physician, an architect, a surgeon, a dentist, a clergyman, a writer, or any other—there must be included in the gross income all fees, salaries, and compensation of any kind received for professional services. Net income is the gross income less the deductions allowed by law. The long-continued and varying experience of the Bureau of Internal Revenue shows that numerous errors are made by taxpayers in their income-tax returns due to their failure to understand clearly what deductions from gross income are allowable. The taxpayer, in his own interest, is urged to read over the instructions on the forms until he understands them, before he makes out his return. Legal deductions include business and professional expenses, such as salaries, pensions, and bonuses to employees, taxes, losses, interest, bad debts, depreciation, depletion, contributions, and similar items definitely set out in the instructions.

An earned-income credit of 10 per cent of the earned net income, not in excess of the 10 percent of the net income, is allowed, in addition to the personal exemption and credit for dependents, if any, for the purpose of computing the normal tax. Surtax net income is the balance left after deducting exemptions and credits from the net income. From this balance is to be deducted the earned income credit and other items, specified in the law and indicated in the return, in determining the amount on which the normal tax of 4 percent is to be computed.

AVIATION CADET APPLICANTS TO RECEIVE PAPERS

All local young men who are interested in joining the Aviation Cadets of the U. S. Army Air Corps and going to Pittsburgh for examination next Monday will be required to complete all the necessary papers before leaving here, it was announced by H. D. Baker, chairman of the Warren Elks' aviation committee, which is in charge.

Mr. Baker will be at his office, 211 West Third avenue, this evening to distribute the various papers which must be signed. He also will be at the Jefferson school tomorrow night, where prospective enlistees may see him either before or after the ground school of the Civilian Pilot Training program.

The necessity of obtaining the various application papers by all those interested in the Aviation Cadets was stressed today by Mr. Baker. He also urged parents of those under 21 to see him either tonight or tomorrow night, in order that they may sign the necessary papers giving their sons permission to enter the service.

In addition to the application form which must be signed, Mr. Baker has papers for young men who are married and for those under age.

Also received from the Pittsburgh headquarters are copies of the mental examination to be given to those who have passed their physical tests. These also may be obtained by the prospective enlistees.

Final enlistment papers also will be given to those who already have passed their physical tests.

No applicant who fails to obtain the necessary papers in advance will be taken to Pittsburgh next week, it was announced today.

COMPLETION OF 160 GAS WELLS IS AUTHORIZED

Of interest to natural gas producers throughout this section is the announcement today by the War Production Board in Washington that it has authorized completion of all natural gas wells started on or before December 23, 1941, in Kentucky, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

The announcement said this action came as a means of meeting the gas needs of growing war industries in the Appalachian area. An earlier order had set up emergency well-spacing regulation in the states involved. This prohibited construction of more than one well in any 40-acre tract, except for wells on which drilling operations actually had been started before December 23.

The amendment permits completion of about 160 wells on which construction had been started, but on which no actual drilling had been done.

How to make Pillsbury's Southern Butter-Pecan Pie

Your husband's favorite (from now on).

Complete recipe:

1. Sift and measure 1 c. Enriched Pillsbury's Best Flour; add 3/4 tsp. baking powder (optional) and 1/4 tsp. salt; mix together. (Two B-vitamins and iron are added to Pillsbury's Best, with no change in flavor, color, or baking quality.) 2. Cut in 1/2 c. shortening until soft and crumbly. 3. Add 2 to 3 Tbsp. cold water gradually until dough is moist enough to hold together. Chill 4. Roll out to about 1/4-in. thickness. Fold pastry over, place loosely in 9-in. pie pan; flute edge. 5. Bake in hot oven (375° F.) 15 min. The tender flakiness of Pillsbury's pie crust is a credit to your judgment in choosing Pillsbury's Best, the same proven flour. Every single hour during milling, samples are tested for creamy, uniform color, and 4 to 6 times a day actual baking tests are made. That's why Pillsbury's Best gives you baking quality that never fails! 6. Fill the Pillsbury pie crust with the following FILLING: 6. Combine 7 Tbsp. Pillsbury's Best Flour and 1/2 tsp. salt in top of double boiler. Add 2 c. cold milk gradually, stirring constantly. 7. Combine 1 c. firmly packed brown sugar and 4 Tbsp. butter; cook over low heat until thick and bubbly. 8. Add to hot milk; place over boiling water; cook until thick and smooth (15 min.). Stir occasionally. 9. Add a little hot filling to egg yolks; slightly beaten; mix well. Return to hot mixture; cook about 5 min. longer. Cool. Add 1 tsp. vanilla and 1/2 c. toasted chopped pecans. 10. Turn into baked shell. Chill thoroughly. Top with sweetened whipped cream and pecans. HERSHEY INSISTS ALL SUPPORT WAR EFFORT

New York, Jan. 29.—(P)—Every American man and woman must face the possibility of being in the U. S. armed services, in some essential defense industry "or be able to give very good reasons to the contrary," says Brig. General Lewis B. Hershey.

The national director of selective service told the Advertising Club yesterday that the selective service system's ultimate objective is the mobilization of 60,000,000 persons for all-out war.

In summation of his defense after three days of criticism and reply in general debate, Churchill said:

"I offer no apologies. I offer no excuse and make no promises. I avow my confidence was never stronger than at this moment that we shall bring this conflict to an end in a manner agreeable to the interests of our country and in a manner agreeable to the future of the world."

Churchill's address followed debate in which further criticism of his government piled up, including that of Socialist Dennis Howell Pritt who asserted that "Juke-warm supporters of Fascism in the government x x x are a very serious and anxious menace."

Turning to criticism of setbacks in the southwest Pacific, Churchill said that if Britain had reduced her help to Russia she would have been better prepared in Burma and Malaya.

At The Theatres

Thrilling Adventure Drama "SUNDOWN"

At the Library Theatre Friday and Saturday

With a star-studded cast, boasting such names as Gene Convey, Bruce Cabot, George Sanders, Reginald Gardiner and Cedric Hardwicke, Walter Wanger's first big production for the new season, "Sundown," will open Friday and Saturday at the Library Theatre. Based on the Saturday Evening Post serial by Bruce Lyndon, "Sundown" pictures an entirely new background, the hinterlands of British Kenya Colony in Central East Africa.

The picture, which was directed by Henry Hathaway, revolves around a small group of white men who rule over several hundred thousand blacks and are in constant danger of annihilation by semi-savage tribes, especially when the latter are roved by firemen by enemy agents. Zia, the stellar character, is played by the lovely dark beauty, Gene Tierney. Supposedly the half-caste daughter of a rich Arab trader, the hauntingly beautiful Zia and her mysterious actions provide the story with spirited romance and breath-taking suspense.
